

Curtis Commons

Adrian, Michigan

A two story medical office building was built behind the 50 year old bank. A pitched roof was added to the bank building to blend it in with the office wing. The medical offices are entirely daylighted. Energy efficient walls, ceiling and windows reduce energy consumption. High efficiency furnaces reduce energy costs further as well as a heat recovery ventilator that provides 100 percent fresh air to the exam rooms.

First Floor Plan

Second Floor Plan

