

Rudolf Steiner High School of Ann Arbor

This conversion of a 35 year old factory to a wonderfully daylighted learning facility is a great example of adaptive reuse. The 15,000 sf existing building was transformed into an array of specialized classrooms and gathering places. Future additions will include a gymnasium and theater.

Sunstructures Architects

201 East Liberty, Ann Arbor, MI 48104 (734)994-5650