

Doug and Olga Smith Residence

This project created a new master bed/bath suite, walk-in closet, laundry, and study above an existing garage. Attic trusses were used to provide additional storage under the roof. Careful proportioning integrated the new form seamlessly with the existing house, while providing wonderfully daylit space.

